Method Used to Determine Students' Eligibility

CARES I:

In order to be considered, in addition to a formal CARES Act Student Application for Emergency Aid, a student must have submitted a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA was used to establish Title IV eligibility and to calculate an Expected Family Contribution (EFC). Preference for funding was given to students whose EFC met the GROUP 3: Since funding was not exhausted through awards made to students in Groups 1 and 2, undergraduate students who were not Pell eligible but had an EFC of 15,000 or lower were invited to apply for CARES II funding if their family had financial needs arising from the
